Death of Mrs. Aaron Tilton.—Was 83 Years Old.

Mrs. Aaron Tilton passed away at her home in this village Friday, March 11, at the advanced age of 83 years, nine months and one day. Ann Stuart was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, June 10, 1826, daughter of William and Elizabeth Lee Stuart, one of a family of five children, she was the last. Her parents coming to Quebec to reside when she was quite young it was here her childhood was spent. Upon the death of her parents she came to Concord to make her home with relatives, when 18 years of age. She was married to Aaron Tilton, December 8, 1853, by the Rev. Asa Livingston, then pastor of the Universalist church. Mr. Tilton took his bride to the home he had built for themselves and where they always lived until Mr. Tilton's death, March 26, 1906. Since then Mrs. Tilton has still resided there tenderly cared for by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mooney, who have lived with and cared for the aged parents for the past eight years. Two children were born to them, Clark A. Tilton of East Rochester, N. H., and Mrs. Jennie C. Mooney of this place. She is also survived by nine grandchildren. Mrs. Tilton was a woman of many excellent qualities, forgetful of self, always having a kindly word and pleasant smile for all, charitable for the failures and mistakes of others, of her it may well be said "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." Mrs. Tilton has been a resident in town about 65 years, was the oldest resident in the village and with one exception the oldest in town. She was the last charter member of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Methodist church which was organized November 17, 1868. Mrs. Tilton has not been well for many years, and six weeks ago had a slight attack of grip from which she had not the strength to recover, but gradually faded away until at 1 p. m. Friday the end came, she laid down the burdens of life and crossed that mysterious border line that separates time from eternity. The funeral was held from the home Sunday at one p. m., the Rev. Grant Van Blarcom, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. A beautiful poem appropriate to the aged was read. There was a profusion of beautiful flowers which testified to the esteem in which she was held. The interment was in the family lot in the old cemetery.

Mrs. Achsa Turner is at her home in Lyndon called there by the illness of a relative.

Miss Edith Howard, who has spent the past two weeks with Mrs. C. C. White, returned to her school in Barton, Monday.

The Episcopalians held their service at the Hall, Sunday at 3 p. m.

Mrs. Ida Thomas, who has spent several weeks with relatives and friends in town, returned to her home at Miles Pond the first of the week.

Judge Henry McGinnis was at home from Damon's Crossing over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lyon entertained Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. Smith of Lunenburg last week.

Charles K. Hodge of Lyndon is making preparations to erect a cottage on Shadow Lake.

Abiel Cheney, a former resident of this place, celebrated his 90th birthday at his home in Hooksett, N. H., March eighth.

Judge J. B. Wallace of East Concord, Mrs. Miles Gray of Colebrook, N. H., and Harry Stuart of St. Johnsbury were in town Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Aaron Tilton.

George Sanborn of Miles Pond spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. E. H. Bazin, Mrs. Alice Richards, Walter Douglas, John Edney and E. J. Williams were in St. Johnsbury the past week.

Henry Edney, who injured his ankle while at work in the woods, is able to be about on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. William Foster were guests of Mrs. Emma West, Sunday.

Mrs. Stephen Haviland entertained her sister, Miss Hazel Lunnie, and brother, Master Harold Lunnie, of Jay last week.

Mrs. Harry Lillie was called to Hudson, Mass., the past week by the serious illness of her sister.

Red Clover Lodge, D. of R., at their regular meeting last Tuesday evening entertained Mrs. Susie Keech, President of the Assembly, of White River Junction. Mrs. Keech was the guest of Mrs. B. E. Haviland and in town.

Mrs. O. G. Chase of Lyndonville is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stacy.

Miss Edith McGinnis went Monday to Sanford, Me., where she has a position in a millinery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Weir of East Concord and Miss Lizzie Jackson of St. Johnsbury were guests at the home of George W. Reed the past week.

Mrs. Bertha Brockway, who has spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Ford in Kirby, returned to her home here Thursday.

The Family Physician

The best medicines in the world cannot take the place of the family physician. Consult him early when taken ill. If the trouble is with your throat, bronchial tubes, or lungs, ask him about taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Then take it or not, as he says.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We do not use opium. We do not use any other dangerous drug.

Billious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizziness—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

In the evening the members of the club and invited guests, to the number of 150, met in the hall for a social evening and supper. Cards and conversation were the attraction until about 10 o'clock, when a very nice collation was served, of cold meats, salads, hot rolls, coffee, cake and ice cream. The post-prandial exercises were very interesting.

The general subject of the speaking being "The Horse," considered from all standpoints, as racing, breeding, training, improvement, opportunities for the farmer, and so on. To those who have fancied the motor car is likely to supplant the horse, the remarks on this occasion were a revelation.

E. A. Cook, of the local law firm of Cook & Norton, acted as toastmaster, and among the speakers were Mr. King of Manchester, N. H., agent for the Mirror and Farmer; Rev. E. G. French, Rev. C. L. Fotheringham and E. J. Hoffman of this place; Dr. Gaines of Newport; Dr. Waller of North Troy, and Dr. Holton of Brattleboro, secretary of the State Board of Health. All the men present were interested in horses, from one standpoint or another, and there were many interesting remarks.

The morning air line train north on Friday last, was derailed near Rumney, N. H., without any serious casualties. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wood, H. J. Hubbard, and W. L. Powers were on the train, who were the entertainers, are to be congratulated on their successful appearance as hosts.
